

Libero/DS Camp

June 12th (Price includes - two sessions – 9am-11:30am & 12:30pm-3pm)
Featuring – Anna Gott – NAU Assistant Coach

Anna Gott – 2013 NAU graduate and the Lumberjack's all-time digs leader. Anna enters her seventh season as NAU's assistant volleyball coach.

Gott started every match of her college career and played in every set as the libero for her entire four-year college career. She shattered NAU's all-time digs record with 1,891 career digs, she was a two-time All-Big Sky honorable mention selection and set NAU's single season digs record with 586 digs.

Ages: 6th-12th grade

This camp is geared for players in the 6th grade through 12th grade, who have a strong interest and passion to pursue playing at the next level, and wish to improve their defense and serve-receive skills. Players will be placed in a high-repetition challenging environment. Athletes will be exposed to various technical skills, including platform, footwork, digging under/overhand, and serve-receive passing. Campers will be taught tactical responsibilities of a libero. Additionally, Camper will also be introduced to skills and techniques used and taught by division I college programs.
